

UPDATING OF CONTACTS AND BANK DETAILS OF NMB SHAREHOLDERS FOR DIVIDEND PAYMENTS

NMB Bank Plc intends to continue with its effort to ensure our shareholders are satisfied with our operations, services and timely payment of dividends. Dividends are paid to shareholder's bank accounts. We are requesting NMB shareholders to update their contact details as well as their bank details for their respective accounts which they will use to receive dividends.

This is only for NMB shareholders;

- i. Who have not received any dividends since they bought their shares.
- ii. Who have changed their bank details and have not notified the bank (including new shareholders).
- iii. Who have changed their Contact address (Phone number, mobile number and postal address).
- iv. Whose accounts are dormant or closed.

Please visit the nearest NMB branch to collect the Dividend Payment Mandate Form, fill it properly and submit it along with your identification document and share certificate to Customer services Desk or send to the following email or postal address below:
